

Jack Phoummarath Memorial Scholarship

Objective

To honor the memory of one of our fallen brothers, Lambda Phi Epsilon will offer financial support to undergraduate members to attend the Undergraduate Interfraternity Institute (UIFI), a program run by the North-American Interfraternity Conference. The goal of this scholarship is twofold: 1) To assist in the endeavors of our undergraduate men in building the knowledge and skills necessary to improve themselves, their chapters, and the Greek community as a whole; 2) To provide our members with opportunities to connect with members of different organizations and broaden their understanding through external learning experience.

UIFI Description

At UIFI, students will explore what it truly means to be a member of the Greek community and live a values-based life. Students will travel to Bloomington, IN to take part in a five day, immersive learning experience. There are 12 available sessions that attendees can take part in. Make sure you can attend one or more of the sessions listed below before applying:

Session 1: May 17-21

Session 2: May 19-23

Session 3: May 28-June 1

Session 4: May 31-June 4

Session 5: June 10-15

Session 6: June 18-22

Session 7: June 25-29

Session 8: July 9-13

Session 9: July 12-16

Session 10: July 16-20

Session 11: July 19-23

Session 12: July 23-27

Resources

The scholarship will cover the $460 registration fee for attending UIFI. Additional expenses, including those incurred from travel, will be the responsibility of the attendee. Interested members should also check with their campus Greek professional to inquire about funding or travel assistance available from their office.

Selection

All members who are active in a chapter in good standing and have at least a 2.75 cumulative GPA are eligible to receive the scholarship. All applications must include a transcript, resume, and letter of recommendation and must be sent to southwest@lambdaphiepsilon.org by the deadline of Sunday April 13th, 2014 and no later. Currently two scholarships are available and applicants will be informed of their selection by April 20th. Once selected, the applicant must register with UIFI by April 27th, 2014 or the scholarship will be voided. The registration link can be found online at <https://www.memberplanet.com/s/uifi/uifi2014scholarshipparticipantregistration>. Any questions about the scholarship should be directed to Minh Lai, Southwest Governor (SouthWest@lambdaphiepsilon.org).
